STRONG LEADERSHIP, VALUED CHARACTER

Ms. Cheryl Davis, Business Technology Instructor, from Magazine High School has spent the past seven years serving as District I Coordinator. She has served as coordinator for the Fall Leadership Conference the entire seven years and the last three years her responsibilities included the Spring Leadership Conference as well. Ms. Davis has a long track record with FBLA. For the past 12 years, she has served as a middle level adviser. She has been a dedicated middle school and high school business teacher for the past 17 years.

Cheryl has experienced many changes in middle level FBLA. "District I has grown tremendously and will continue to do so," says Cheryl. It is that kind of vision that has ignited membership of middle level chapters. Ms. Davis portrayed an attitude of service with a vision of excellence. Her greatest FBLA accomplishment has been to serve District I as coordinator. "One of the personal benefits has been watching the officers gain confidence each year as they adjust to their new roles.

Cheryl is a great example of excellence. Pearl S. Buck said, "The secret of joy in work is contained in one word--excellence. To know how to do something well is to enjoy it." Ms. Davis has worked diligently for District I and her leadership will have a lasting impact on the lives of students and advisers. John Maxwell wrote, "A leader is one who knows the way, goes the way, and shows the way. Ms. Davis exemplified a heart of service, responsibility, and leadership. Thank you for giving your time, talents, and service to District I.
